

Marginwake Website Terms

Marginwake LLC | Effective October 17, 2026

These terms cover browsing and contacting Marginwake. Manuscript submissions are also subject to the Submission Terms.

About the website

This website is operated by Marginwake LLC and describes its publishing work.

Registered-agent address for legal notices: 2222 W. Grand River Ave, Ste A, Okemos, MI 48864, USA.

For routine or privacy questions, email support@marginwake.com or call (616) 236-0505.

Using the website

Use the site lawfully and respect other people's rights. Do not try to gain unauthorized access, interfere with site operation, send malicious files, impersonate someone else or submit material you are not authorized to provide.

Website content and ownership

Website text, design, branding and other materials may be protected by intellectual-property rights held by Marginwake or other rights holders. You may browse and contact us; further use must be allowed by law or permission.

Submitting material does not transfer ownership to Marginwake. Manuscript review uses only the limited permission in the Submission Terms.

Submissions and publishing agreements

Before sending a manuscript, read the Submission Terms and Privacy Notice linked on the legal page and submission page.

Website descriptions, receipts, editorial interest and next-step discussions do not create a publishing agreement. Publishing rights, financial terms and each party's obligations require a separate written agreement signed by both parties.

The Publishing Process Overview is nonbinding information, not an offer, agreement for signature or publication guarantee.

Availability and outside links

We may update content or interrupt access for maintenance or other reasons. We do not guarantee uninterrupted availability or error-free descriptions.

Other website operators control their services, terms and privacy practices. These terms do not remove rights or remedies that applicable law does not allow to be excluded.

Privacy accessibility and updates

The Privacy Notice explains information handling. It is not a blanket request to consent to every kind of processing.

For help using the website or reading a document, contact support@marginwake.com or (616) 236-0505. Identify the page or document and the help you need.

Changes posted on the legal page will not automatically alter a separately signed publishing agreement.
